Curtis Hardware Company Falls.

On last Saturday about 4 p. m., the doors of the Curtis Hardware company were closed and a notice placed on the door stating that the Sumner National bank had possession of the stock by virtue of a chattel mortgage. For a term of about two years the firm has been in a bad way financially. During this time they gave notes to the Sumner National bank, amounting in all to about $11,000. They have been making great efforts at collecting, but were very unsuccessful. On Friday of last week Cashier Brannan, of the Sumner National bank, requested that a mortgage on the four stores of the company be given, which was done. This security includes everything in the Wellington, Belle Plaine, Conway Springs and Argonia stores, but not goods which were being sold on commission. The liabilities will reach between $30,000 and $40,000, and the assets are estimated at $80,000. This places the firm in a condition that will enable them to adjust these claims in time and resume business. Mr. Curtis has been connected with the hardware business in Wellington ten or twelve years and this failure is regretted by all with whom he has transacted business. It is hoped by all that some arrangement will be perfected soon that will enable the firm to resume business again.

Game, Game, Game!

We are now ready to buy game. Under the stimulating and benign influences of the McKinley bill, it is expected that prices will rule very high, affording ample protection to the American laborer in this line, as well as in wheat and cattle. So, "Johnny get your gun." W. R. SAVAGE.
